Herb Feith Foundation Seminar Series 2015

Addressing the Legacies of the 1965–66 Mass Violence in Indonesia 50 Years On

To mark International Human Rights Day the Herb Feith Foundation is pleased to announce a special event including a photo exhibition, book launch and lecture by the leading Indonesian human rights lawyer Nursyahbani Katjasungkana and academic Professor Saskia Wieringa. Key figures coordinating of International People’s Tribunal on 1965 held in The Hague in November 2015, our speakers will present a lecture, ‘Explaining the November 2015 International People’s Tribunal on the 1965 Indonesian violence: Aims and outcomes’.

Date       Thursday 10 December 2015
Time
5pm opening of photo exhibition: The Act of Living
6pm launch of Forbidden Memories
6.30 – 8pm Lecture
Dinner will be served 5.30 – 6.30pm

Venue      Ground Floor (H116), H Building, Monash University Caulfield campus

RSVP       7 December 2015 click here

Image caption: Migelina A. Markus (Kupang) was detained during the violence of 1965, along with both of her parents and her siblings. Her father and younger brother were both disappeared: The Act of Living, AJAR