CMRS Friday Seminar Series – Semester 1, 2015

6 March – Morning Tea Welcome

13 March – Gordon Whyte; Humoural Medicine in early-Australia

3 April – Good Friday; NO SEMINAR

10 April – Mid-semester break; NO SEMINAR

17 April – Luke Bancroft; The Opera del Duomo and the Papal Apartments at Santa Maria Novella (Mid-candidature Review)

24 April – CMRS Inaugural Annual Symposium: "Tied with indissoluble chains": Languages of Exile and Imprisonment in Medieval and Renaissance England and Italy. (Convened by Lisa Di Crescenzo and Sally Fisher). All day event held at Monash Staff Club.

1 May – Eva Anagnostou Laoutides; Vitae Vergilii and Florentine Intellectual Life to the Fifteenth Century

8 May – Julianna Grigg; Royalty and Relics in the Early Medieval West: Exploiting the Sacred and the Politics of State-building

15 May – Megan Cassidy-Welch; Career Trajectories in Medieval Studies: A Personal Perspective

22 May – Rebecca Lobel; Responsa Prudentium: Early Modern Applications of Hebrew Teshuva Texts and Their Use by Historians as Primary Sources

29 May – Véronique Duché; Old French grammar workshop (TBA)